The Republicans of New Jersey are despondent. They admit that there is no chance for Garfield to get the electoral vote, and say there is no hope for their State ticket unless the Democrats hope is a slender one.

The Times is what might be called a himself; and in that long period he has "lightning calculator," but it doesn't had one decision reversed by the Sustrike centre in one instance, at least. preme Court. Our people are for Crittenden, and the delegates, though uninstructed, will redidate for Attorney-General, and we jeet to the decision of the Democratic Primary flect the wishes of their constituents. can commend him as one of the fittest Beside, we happen to know personally and ablest contestants for the position that they will not vote for Marmaduke.

When Hancock was nominated, and his good name and clear record were being discussed, a certain U.S. officeholder of this place said, "O, just wait until we ventilate his cotton-stealing during the war!" Now, as we have not yet seen any Republican paper with hardihood enough to say anything about this defect in Hancock's record, we give it to those advocates of Godand-morality as a pointer. It is a been "hired" by the Nation to examshame that the humbler followers of ine Mr. Garfield's record with a view the party who are willing to grovel in does not appear to the best advantage the dirtiest dirt should not have more in his scheme of defence. In regard to countenance and support from their the De Golyer case, the public mind "organs."

The Cincinnati Gazette, extreme Radical, not only considers Wisconsin a doubtful State for the Republicans, but declares the situation there threatening and dangerous in the extreme to the De Gover patent. As above shown, there its party. From the N. Y. Sun. The eminent lawyer who, according to the Springfield Republican, has to acquitting him for election purposes, cannot be confused or diverted from the main point, the five-thousand-dollar bribe, by uncandid and conflicting statements. Take the following illustrations from the Nation's labored defence of the Republican candidate: "He [Parsons] a-ked Gen. tra: fi id to take

This plain and direct question was evaded at first, because Garfield knew the files of the Board would be brought in the campaign. Why it did appear in to confront him if he answered in cally. And this is his answer: "Garfield-I could not say I did.

"Nickerson-Did you at any time appear before the Board and make any argument "Garfield—I do not remainer that I did; but I did speak to Gov. The herd on the sub-ject, giving my opinion at a favor." If there was a but, as the Nation alleges, what became of it? If prepared at all, as the Nation assumes, it was for the Board of Public Works. According to the Nation, Mr. Garfield got five thousand dollars for that brief; but when Garfield is compelled to speak in his own behalf, and with the certainty of detection if he spoke falsely, he "could not say" he filed the pretended document. And when pressed further by the inquiry whether he had ever appeared before the Board and made any argument whatever, he replied, "I do not remember that I did."
